b) Laws for the Welfare of Labourers : A Time line

The government implemented the first Factory Act in 1881 and made the following rules especially for the welfare of working children:

- . Children below the age of 7 cannot be employed in factories.
- . Children between 7 and 12 years of age cannot be made to work more than 9 hours a day and they must be given a one-hour break each day. They must also be given 4 days leave each month.

The largest number of labourers in industries was that of men. It wasn't until 1911 that laws for their welfare were made. According to the Factory Act of 1911:

- . Adult male labourers could not be made to work for more than 12 hours every day

In 1891, laws were made in the interest of women labourers to ensure that:

- 1850
- 1860 . Women labourers cannot be made to work more than 11 hours a day.
- 1870 . Women labourers must be given an hour and half break each day.
- 1880 . Children's working hours were reduced from 9 to 7 hours/day and factory employers were forbidden to employ children below 9 years of age.
- 1890
- 1900
